

FAQ – Generations Challenge

1. What's the fundraising deadline for the challenge?

You have until September 23, 2023, to collect donations.

2. Is there a registration deadline?

No. Since the 2023 challenge ends on September 23, we encourage you to start collecting donations as soon as possible. You should give yourself at least four weeks between signing up and taking part in the challenge.

3. What donations are eligible for a donation receipt?

Any donation of $20 or more is eligible for a donation receipt. Anonymous donations are not eligible for donation receipts.

4. Are there other ways to donate besides bank cards?

Yes, you can send donations in cash or by cheque to the CHUM Foundation office. Please include the following details:

- Name of challenge
- Name of team (if applicable)
- Name of participant (if applicable)
- Your full name or company name
- Mailing address

*CHUM Foundation
465 McGill Street, Suite 800
Montréal, QC H2Y 2H1*

5. Can you do a solo challenge or do you have to participate as a team?

You're free to choose between a solo or a team challenge.

6. Can you be on more than one team at a time?

No, the platform does not allow you to be on more than one team.

7. Do all team members need to do the same challenge?

No, each team member can do a different challenge if they want to.

8. Do you need to do an athletic challenge?

9. Does my challenge need to take place over multiple weeks, or can it happen on a specific date?

You can absolutely organize a challenge on a specific date, but we recommend picking a date that gives you at least four weeks to raise funds before the event.

10. Do you need to collect a minimum amount of donations?

No, there is no minimum required. We recommend setting a goal that seems realistic yet challenging.

11. Do you need to be an adult to participate?

No, anyone aged 0 to 99 can join. Conditions may apply if your challenge is subject to any particular rules of another organization (for example, people who want to go parachuting would need to follow the rules set by the service provider).

12. Where do the donations go?

Your generosity saves people and changes lives.

- You'll have a tangible impact on ensuring that patients always have access to the most advanced care with state-of-the-art technology.
- You'll contribute to funding a variety of promising, innovative research projects at the CHUM.
- You'll make a real difference on the health of current and future generations.

13. Are there registration fees for participating in the Generations Challenge?

Registration for the Challenge is free and includes access to a customizable fundraising platform. The CHUM Foundation does not cover any costs that may be associated with your challenge (yoga classes, for example).

FAQ – CHUM EMPLOYEES

- 1. What criteria does my team need to meet to be able to direct 50% of the sums raised to a CHUM dedicated fund?
  - a. The team lead must be a CHUM employee.
  - b. Each team needs a minimum of four employees.

2. Can we direct 50% of our donations to more than one dedicated fund?

No, teams can donate 50% of their donations to only one dedicated fund. The team lead must specify the fund when they sign up.
